

A FOREST RESCUE

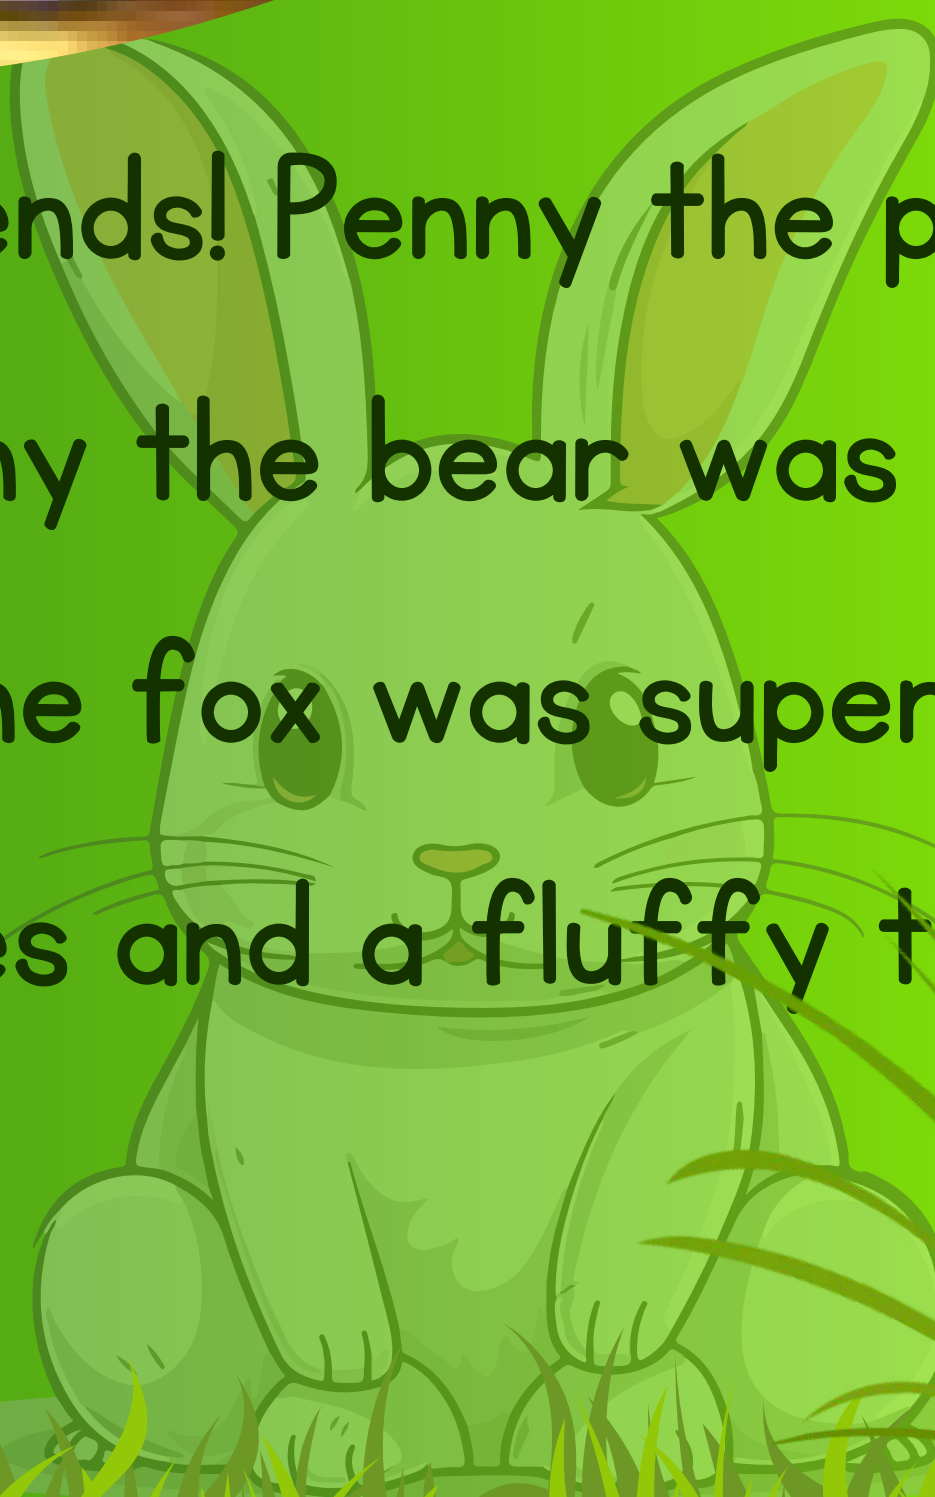

Once upon a time, in a happy forest with lots of laughing bunnies and bouncing butterflies, there was a bouncy bunny named Pip. Pip loved to hop around! His nose wiggled (sniff, sniff!), his ears perked up at every sound (what's that?), and his fluffy tail bounced like a happy ball (boing, boing!).

Pip had awesome friends! Penny the porcupine had shiny quills, Benny the bear was shy but strong, and Fiona the fox was super smart with bright eyes and a fluffy tail.

One morning, Pip woke up and felt strange. "Oh no!" he said quietly. His best friend, Sammy the squirrel, was missing! Sammy's cozy bed was empty, and their home was quiet.

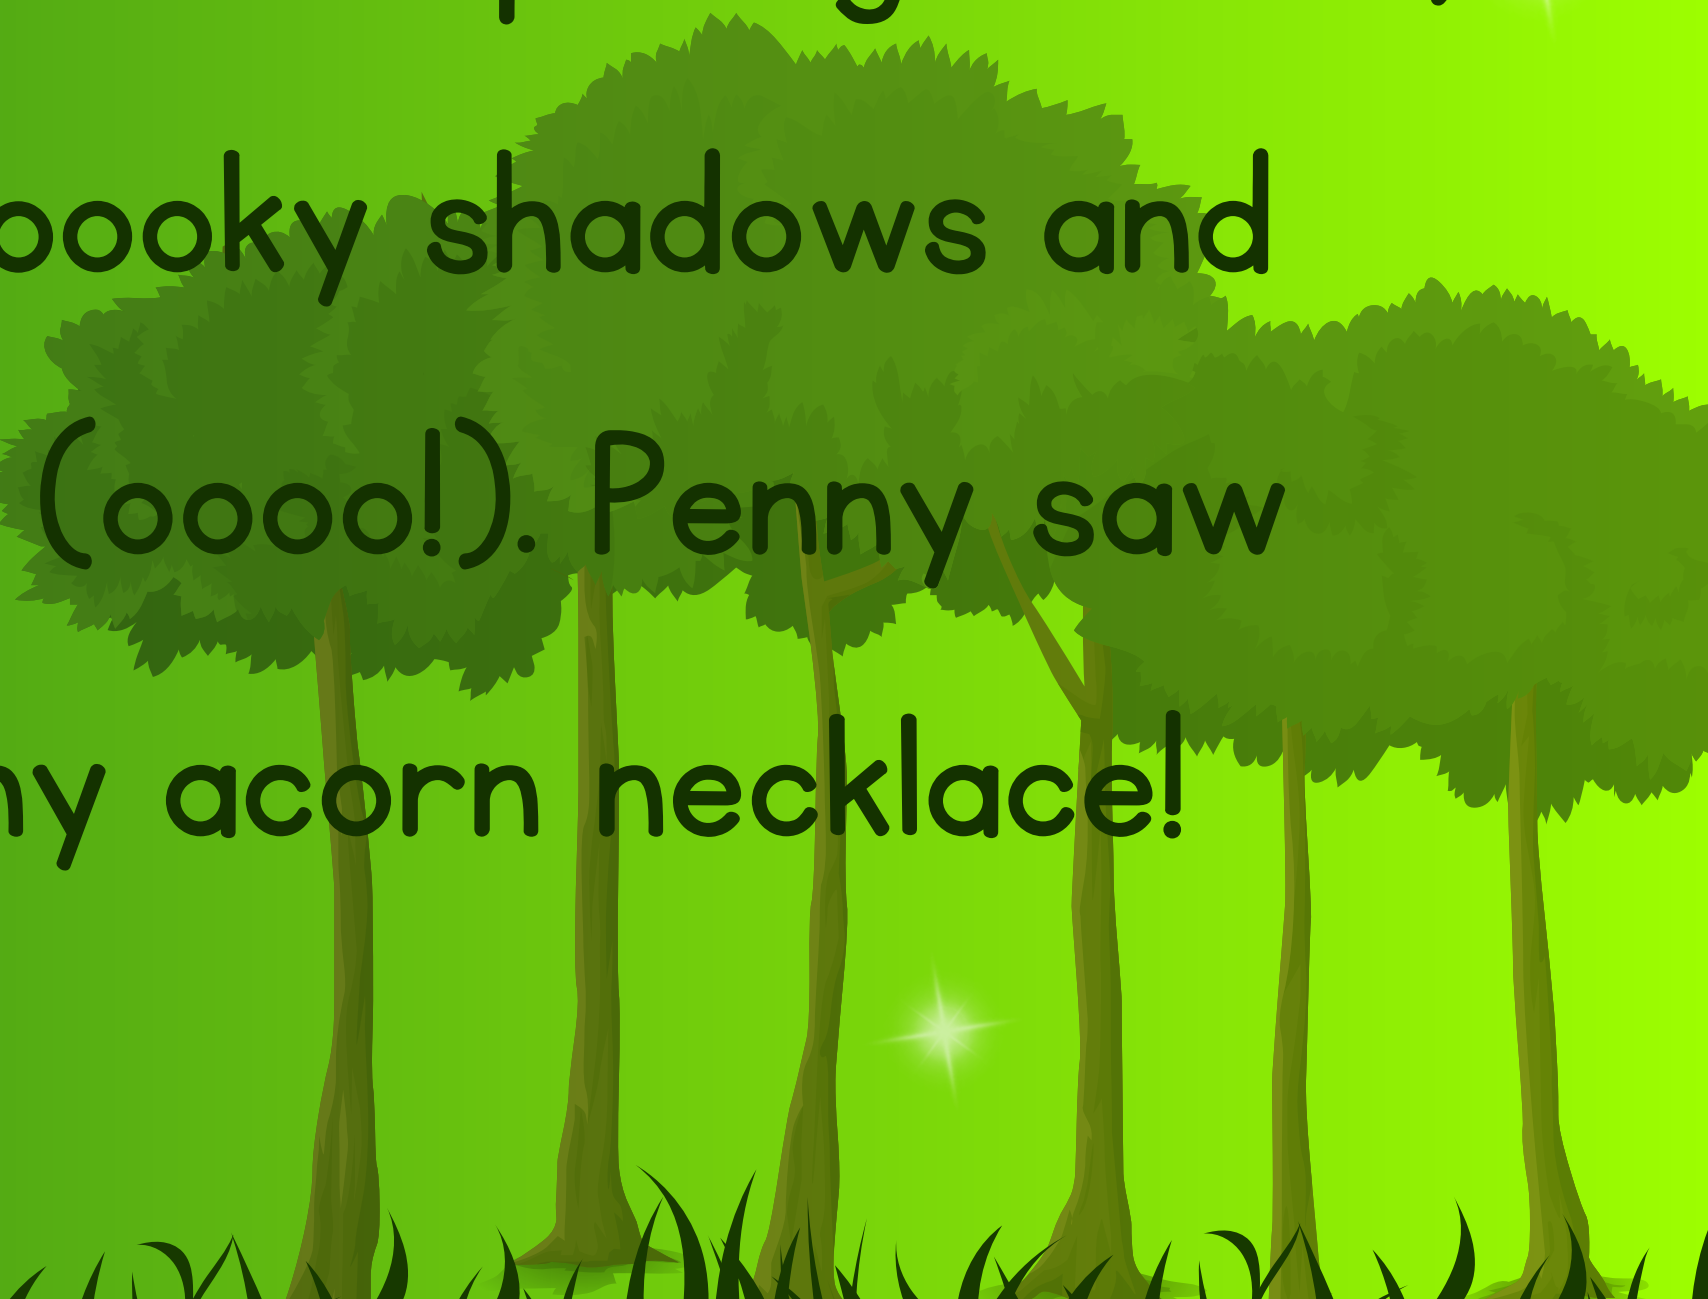

"Sammy's gone!" Pip said sadly. He called his friends. Penny's quills stood up, Benny stomped his big feet, and Fiona's eyes got serious. They had to find Sammy!

Off they went on an adventure! They followed Sammy's small footprints and the nuts he dropped (he loved snacks!) They climbed slippery mushrooms (giggles!), squeezed through scratchy bushes (phew!), and even met a grumpy badger under a big tree (grumble, grumble!).

But they didn't give up! Fiona smelled a trail leading to the Whispering Woods, a place with spooky shadows and rustling leaves (oooo!). Penny saw Sammy's shiny acorn necklace!

They took a big breath and went inside. It got dark, and the leaves whispered secrets. But Pip remembered how brave Sammy was and hopped ahead. Strong Benny led the way, Fiona followed the smell, and Penny kept bugs away with her quills.

Finally, they saw an open space. And guess what? There was Sammy, hanging upside down from a thorny vine, looking grumpy (uh oh!). He had chased a butterfly (again!) and got stuck!

"Don't worry, Sammy!" Pip yelled. With Benny's strength and Fiona's smarts, they helped Sammy come down. They were all back together, a bit messy but very happy (hooray!).

Back in their cozy home, they ate tasty carrots (crunch, crunch!). Pip learned that even little bunnies can be brave. Together, with teamwork and friendship, they could solve any problem - even rescuing a nutty squirrel from a sticky situation!
