

TREASURE HUNT

Once upon a time,
in a forest with
happy butterflies
and bouncy
mushrooms, there
was a fluffy fox
named Freddy..
His tail moved
faster than
hiccups (hics!), his ears listened to
every sound
(what's that?), but he often forgot
things – a lot!
(Oops!).

One sunny day,
Freddy found an
old treasure map.
His eyes got big as
the moon (wow!).
"A treasure hunt!"
he squeaked, his
bushy tail wagging (swish, swish!). But there was a
problem – the map
had riddles and
clues, and Freddy
wasn't good at remembering.

Feeling worried (oh oh!), Freddy called his best friends. There was Bella the badger, strong and patient, and Billy the bat, clever and wise. Together, they went on the treasure hunt! Freddy read the first riddle: "Where flowers whisper secrets, find the key."

Freddy forgot the clue (oops!), but Bella reminded him kindly, "The flowers know where the key is!"

They followed colorful flowers to a big tree. Bella dug and found a key hidden there! (Aha!)

The next clue was tricky: "Follow the light in the dark." Freddy got worried (uh oh!), but Billy had an idea! He brought fireflies, and they lit the way.

With the fireflies, they found a shiny emerald by a stream – the treasure! They cheered (hooray!). Freddy learned that with friends, even if he forgot things, they could find the treasure!

THE END
